

STEVEN WOODWARD

• Front-end Web Developer •

ABOUT ME

I'm highly-curious and hyper-focused on any project or skill I am pursuing, but my main strengths come from personal relationships built with others to widen our experiences. I believe in open communication and feel that true growth comes from such.

I love the visual arts, music and performance, all genres of movies, and have an affinity for anyone grinding to express their creativity.

I am currently diving deeper into MERN stack development using online resources as well as reading Eloquent JavaScript, Plant Based Athlete, and watching Ozark and Vikings.

PROJECTS

coderMerch | Source - Demo

coderMerch is a 2000's hacker-themed e-commerce site that features my software-inspired streetwear designs as well as a #techtwitter dev-of-the-month shout-out.

- Built with React, Vanilla CSS with some Material UI, Framer Motion
- Integrated with Commerce.js, Stripe, Mailchimp

Vegas Luxury Home Tours | Source - Demo

Vegas Luxury Home Tours is a client site that implements a blog and a booking system. The client and I collaborated on the design and functionality and has increased her revenue by paying less in fees to other sites that hosted her services.

- Built with React, Framer Motion
- Integrated with Sanity, Calendly, Email JS

Galeria Slideshow | Source - Demo

Galeria Slideshow is a Frontend Mentor Pro challenge that focuses on the masonry layout and slideshow. • Worked closely with the marketing team to produce concepts for clients.

- Built with React, Styled Components
